

RAY OF HOPE

Mr. Guy Fievez

Mr. Guy Fievez worked as electrical engineer first in Belgium and thereafter for thirty five years at CERN (Centre Europeen de Recherche Nucleaire) in Geneva Switzerland. His main responsibilities were to maintain the main electrical network of the center and quality control of the main magnets of the LHC (Large Hadron Collider). He retired 5 years ago, and has many interests such as Geology and vulcanology.